ABOUT ME

I'm Azamat, a self-taught front-end developer with over 1-year experience. I'm passionate about the ecosystem of JavaScript. I'm hard-working and keen on learning new things. I always try to write clean code correctly to enhance my skills and the quality of my work. I'm currently looking for the opportunity to work in an environment that will help me progress within my career path. Furthermore, I enjoy sharing knowledge and experience, which benefits both parties.
